

Keep Bringing It!

Hello Team Right Now!

It has been another exciting week. In my posts this week, I included more information from the 2011 Summit, including the full interview with Tony Horton on P90X2. I have to subdue my excitement because we are still a while away. You can pre-order in September with a launch in December.

I also posted the full interview with Darin Olien and Isabelle Daikeler (Co-Creators of Shaskeology). This discussion provides further evidence of how much quality and care that go into this ultra-premium product. If you have been on the fence about trying Shakeology with a 30-day bottom of the bag guarantee, I suggest you read this. It has literally not only changed the lives of those who consume it, but also those who produce the raw materials.

Some other highlights this week include the final video that was submitted to ShaunT for the ASYLUM CHALLENGE. We should hear this week which team won, but teamRIPPED has high confidence! :)

Today was also a milestone for me in completing my first triathlon. It was a gorgeous day in Chicago and it was a ton of fun!

Keep the questions coming team. I am here to help you achieve your goals!

Have a great week.
- Coach Mike

What is Team Right Now?

For the newcomers to the newsletter (and to Beachbody), what is TRN all about? After starting P90x in December 2009 and doing other BB workouts, I decided to start coaching others. As a Beachbody Coach, I become a representative for Beachbody and their products. More importantly, I get to share my lessons learned from the programs with others and help them achieve their goals

PAP UML Workout

June 24, 2011 - At the 2011 Beachbody Summit last week, we were able to choose a trainer for an hour long workout. Unfortunately, they put Tony, Shaun T, and Chalene all at the same time. Strange. Anyhow, I went to see my man Tony. There is simply nothing more motivating than having Tony...

Final Motivation

Setting goals for ourselves is so important. It can be a 1 day, 5 day, 30 day, or 90 day goal. One of the great things about Beachbody is that they have programs for various timeframes. Some of the programs like Slim in 6, Turbo Fire, and Power 90 also contain a 5 day express plan. If a long program intimidates you, start with 5 days.

I talk a lot about extreme programs like P90X, Insanity, and Asylum, but there are many programs for many levels! Slim in 6, 10 Minute Trainer, Turbo Jam, and Hip Hop Abs are all great programs that many people have seen tremendous results.

If you have wanted to start a new program, start with a short term goal. If 30 or 60 minute workouts are intimidating, start with 10 minute trainer.

I am here not to force any program on you, but to be here as a resource. I have been using Beachbody programs for 18+ months and I can tell you that they work. The combination of exercise and proper diet will give you results and these programs provide you a guide on how to do that.

So whatever question you may have, please feel free to ask away.

Also, as always, remember that the way I benefit from being your coach is that I earn a commission from any Beachbody products that you purchase, as long as you buy them through my site, www.TeamRightNow.com, or by logging in to <http://www.beachbodycoach.com/COACHMIKER7> to do your shopping (If you buy from the plain beachbody site I get no credit). It helps with the amount of time I spend answering all your questions and helping you out. Thank you! I really appreciate it!
