

Keep Bringing It!

Hello Team Right Now!

I hope everyone is enjoying their summer. We had a nasty storm that left us without power for a day and half. But outside of that, I have been loving the warm weather. It has been great for my triathlon training.

I am currently in the process of getting a new logo created for the team. It is something I have wanted to change for a while. I am also looking for a tagline for us. As you know, we are about doing things right now. We are about making a decision and acting upon it without looking back. We are about not waiting for tomorrow, but doing it right here and now! We are also about having passion to help others. We are about getting results and meeting or exceeding our goals. So one tagline I thought about was "Xtreme Passion 4 Xtreme Results". Not sure if I like it enough for that to be our final tagline. Kevin, another TRNer, suggested "Right People. Right Choices. Right Now." I liked that one too.

So I am reaching out to the team. Send me some suggestions. What do think of when you think of us? What do you like about this team?

Keep the questions coming team. I am here to help you achieve your goals!

Have a great week.

- Coach Mike

What is Team Right Now?

For the newcomers to the newsletter (and to Beachbody), what is TRN all about? After starting P90x in December 2009 and doing other BB workouts, I decided to start coaching others. As a Beachbody Coach, I become a representative for Beachbody and their products. More importantly, I get to share my lessons learned from the programs with others and help them achieve their goals

Blog Updates This Week

Here is a quick run-down of this week's blogs. For the full versions, just head over to my blog. <http://teamrightnow.com>

Beachbody in Mexico / Canada

July 17, 2011 - Unfortunately as of today, you can only be a Beachbody Coach if you reside in the United States. However, Team Beachbody is working very hard to expand into the global realm. First up is Mexico and Canada. Carl Daikeler gave everyon

Carl Daikeler - Why Bother?

July 15, 2011 - First off, I want to take this opportunity to thank my wife for agreeing to make me her lifelong partner in this journey we call life 11 years ago today. There we are in the picture on July 15, 2000. I love you sweetie. Today, I am posting the first part of Carl...

Food Revolution - Season 1, Episode 1

July 14, 2011 - I never really watch TV because in my free time I am doing this blog or answering questions or with my family. And so I never knew this show existed. I was watching something on YouTube and this came up in the recommendations on the right (I guess YouTube's tactics...

Military Coaches - No Fees

July 14, 2011 - I am very happy to announce that the military longer has to pay coaching fees! As you know, the military is very strong in the Beachbody ranks and this is a small token appreciation from Beachbody. So if you are customer of Beachbody and you or your spouse is active...

End the Trend

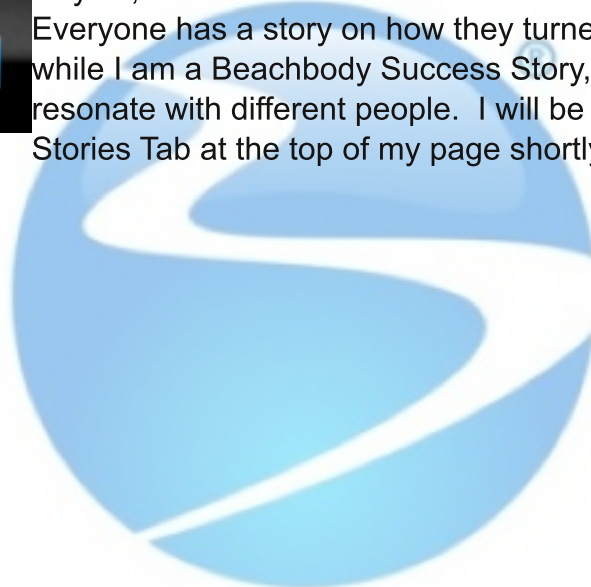

July 12, 2011 - This is a very important topic for me. People wonder why I spend so much time blogging and trying to help people build a healthier lifestyle. It is a lot of time and I sacrifice my free time and even time with my family. I have a full time job. Why all the time and...

Success Stories

July 11, 2011 - Success Stories is what keep this so exciting. Everyone has a story on how they turned things around. And while I am a Beachbody Success Story, different stories resonate with different people. I will be creating a Success Stories Tab at the top of my page shortly to...

Final Motivation

I'm going to refer back to my website for this week's Final Motivation. Why do I do what I do? I mean, why spend so much time on this? Am I obsessing? Isn't this a little extreme? I mean why don't I just go back to the way I was?

I really liked Carl Daikeler's introductory speech at the summit. I posted it under the title "Why Bother?" Ultimately, he believes as do I that obesity is one of the very top issues for the US (and many other countries). It is as one surgeon general called it "the terror from within".

But it is such a huge issue. How can one person or even close to 60,000 Beachbody Coaches make a difference. In the post "End The Trend", Brett Blake talks about how we can. Any large problem can be broken into smaller chunks. And eventually those smaller chunks lead back to us as individuals.

I support Beachbody and their products because they have worked for me and so many others. I truly believe that we can make a difference and Beachbody products provide the vehicle and show us HOW. This is not about vanity. This is about health. This is about reversing the trend of obesity in America. This about putting our arms around our friends, families, and neighbors and being someone who can help if they so choose it. It is uncomfortable. It makes us vulnerable and at risk for rejection. But if you reach one person, isn't it worth it?

Also, as always, remember that the way I benefit from being your coach is that I earn a commission from any Beachbody products that you purchase, as long as you buy them through my site, www.TeamRightNow.com, or by logging in to <http://www.beachbodycoach.com/COACHMIKER7> to do your shopping (If you buy from the plain beachbody site I get no credit). It helps with the amount of time I spend answering all your questions and helping you out. Thank you! I really appreciate it!

2012 National Summit

The 2012 Summit was announced this week. It will be held at the MGM Grand in Las Vegas on June 22-24! They want to ensure that every single coach that wants to attend can attend. This year had a HUGE waiting list and it is disappointing to not be able to accommodate people. Within 24 hours, the 2012 Summit had enrolled 2500 people, the same amount that had attended this
